Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $500, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.

Return Shipment Instructions

Return Shipment Instructions

1. Place the shipping label and all signed copies of the Commercial Invoice in the shipping pouch.
2. Affix the shipping pouch with the recipient's full address on the most visible side of the container away from any folds or seams.
3. Ship your package one of three ways:
  - Use your regular scheduled pickup.
  - Drop off at FedEx.
  - Schedule a pickup.

To find the closest drop-off location or for more information on shipping your package, go to fedex.com/globalreturns to access the customer support center.

Prepare Your Package With Care.

- Use an appropriate container, cushioning materials and at least three strips of packing tape.
- If reusing packaging, remove or black out old shipping labels including their barcode(s).

Include the Correct Customs Documents.

Complete and accurate documentation is one of the most important elements for international shipping and customs clearance. Properly completed documentation will help your shipment reach its international destination on time and reduce the risk of it being delayed at customs.

- Customs documents must be completed for only the commodities being returned.
- A signed Commercial Invoice is generally required when shipping items other than documents internationally. It is used by the broker and customs as your primary declaration as to the contents and value of the shipment you are shipping. Certain countries require the Commercial Invoice to be on company letterhead if the returning party is a business. Please refer to fedex.com/globalreturns for a list of applicable countries and necessary instructions.
- Shipping from Canada? International return shipments from Canada to countries other than the U.S., Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands may require a B13A form. If required, please include a completed B13A form with your shipment. Please refer to fedex.com/globalreturns for a blank B13A form, list of applicable countries and necessary instructions.
- FedEx® Global Returns shipments are governed by the terms and conditions applicable to the country from which the shipment is returned. The terms and conditions of service may vary from country to country. Consult a local FedEx location or fedex.com/globalreturns for specific information.
- For more information regarding documentation that may be required for clearance in the destination country, assistance in completing the documentation, or information on duties and taxes, go to fedex.com/globalreturns.
